Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Pax Economica Freedom of International Exchange the Sole Method for the Permanent and Universal Abolition of War: With a Statement of the Cause and the Solution of the European Crisis, and a Sketch of the Only Possible Conclusive Settlement of the Problem Confronting the World Three years of a war more murderous, ruinous and hideous than human imagination ever could have conceived, the unexpected duration and the continuous aggravation of the most perilous crisis which could confront the world, the impending menace of a break-down of civilization, to which some grave symptoms already point, do not appear to have brought the governments, statesmen and leaders of thought any nearer to the conception of a settlement that a civilized mind could call a solution of the international situation. Very few among our contemporaries seem yet to realize that Force cannot solve international problems any more than other problems, cannot make the world more secure in the future than it has made it in the past, cannot establish a peace worthy to be lived, cannot save civilization-that these results can be attained only by justice and morality in international relations. Many indeed speak of international justice. But these are words without significance, if they are not in accordance with international truth. Though truth always is justice, what we call and think to be justice is not often truth. Cognition of international truth must be sought through a statement of facts and the formation of a sound theory to be derived therefrom; the advent of international justice and of a lasting peace can be expected only through the expression of a practical proposal responding to facts and theory....
