Reviews

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 36 pages. LC Number: KF27 . V462 2010a OCLC Number: (OCoLC)645463442 Subject: Iraq War, 2003- -- Veterans -- Services for -- United States. Excerpt: . . . ENT OF HON. DAVID P. ROE Mr. Roe. Thank you for yielding, Mr. Chairman. I would first like to thank the Members of the first panel for their service to this country. Not only their military service, but their continued service by appearing here today to share their testimony and help us work toward a better transition for our Nations veterans. Prior to this hearing, my staff provided me with a list of the hearings held by the Committee on Veterans Affairs over the past 10 years, totaling around 33 hearings. The topics have ranged from employment transition through the use of polytrauma centers, pre- and post-deployment health assessments, sharing of electronic health records of our wounded servicemembers, transition assistance programs (TAPs) for Guard and Reserve forces, and the list goes on. As you can tell, helping our servicemembers move from the military to civilian life is of great importance to this Committee. Concern in Congress about helping our servicemembers transition to civilian life didnt start 10 years ago. During the 97th Congress, Congress codified this concept of DoDVA sharing, now known as seamless transition in 1982 with passage of the Veterans Administration and the Department of Defense Health Resources Sharing and Emergency Operations Act. This act created the VA Care Committee to supervise and manage opportunities to share medical resources. Todays hearing will enable the Committee to review the various programs that have been instituted to assist our Nations veterans and wounded warriors in their transition to civilian life. We will be looking forward not only at the medical record...
