Earth House Hold (a play on the root meaning of ecology), drawn from Gary Snyders essays and journals, may prove a landmark for the new generation. As a poet, Snyder tells us, I hold the most archaic values on earth. They go back to the late Paleolithic; the fertility of the soil, the magic of animals, the power-vision in solitude, the terrifying intuition and rebirth; the love and ecstasy of the dance, the common work of the tribe. He develops, as replacement for shattered social structures. a concept of tribal tradition which could lead to growth and enlightenment in self-disciplined freedom. Whatever it is or ever was in any other culture can be reconstructed from the unconscious through meditation. . . the coming revolution will close the circle and link us in many ways with the most creative aspects of our archaic past.
