The book encourages readers to realize that even though a situation may seem terrible, they may have something to smile about - If they have a good attitude. On December 5th 1990, I had surgery in Hollywood, Florida for a bleeding brain tumor. Through it was the most trying experience in my life, some things did bring a smile to my face . . . LATER. Id like to share them with you. I was SO blessed on the day that ambulance took me from one hospital, where they found the tumor, to Hollywood Memorial Hospital. I truly got the best with the brains. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
