Although the Fraserburgh Golf Club was only resuscitated in 1882, the game has been played upon Fraserburgh Links by devotees in the town and district for more than one hundred years. Some of the ancestors of the present Lord Saltoun were enthusiastic golfers, and they, in addition to many of the neighbouring landed gentry, regularly frequented Fraserburgh Links generations ago, and engaged in matches. As some indication of the estimation in which the game was held, it may be mentioned that thirty or forty years back New Years Day was entirely devoted to golfing, and on that occasion a large number of the natives of the adjacent fishing villages--no mean players in their day--met a selected team of the inhabitants on the links of Fraserburgh to do battle for a fixed sum of money. On completion of the match victors...
