It was the opinion of his friends that these two decades marked an epoch in the morals, religion and literature of our city; and also that he had been foremost in creating such epoch. Hence they took advice among themselves as to the form of such testimonial, the result of which will appear from the following: Dear Sir: Many friends of Prof. Swing consider some appropriate notice should be taken of the twentieth anniversary of his labors in Chicago. In order that the fitting thing may be done, we urgently request you to meet us and others of his friends in consultation at the Club Room in the Palmer House, on Thursday, Feb.4, at 4 o'clock, P. M.
