Open the mints of this country for an unlimited coinage of silver, and Mexico, induced by the present superior rating of the United States dollar, will pour her silver into our circulation as France feared that the German silver would be poured into hers. Other silver countries will follow the example of Mexico, and thus the difficulty of absorption will be vastly increased. The consequence will be a lapse from bimetallism, with all our dollars at a parity, to monometallism, with silver as the exclusive metal. GOVERNOR STONE S SOLID FINANCIAL, POSITION. The Picayune, on Sunday, printed a letter from Governor Stone, of Mississippi, addressed to a prominent citizen of that State on the silver question. Governor Stone, who is nearing the end of repeated terms of able service in the executive office of Mississippi, is a candidate for the...
