Inspired by the Book of Revelation and biblical scripts, the poems of the book highlight the turmoil and despair that an apocalyptic destiny invokes within ourselves. In his third book, Robert Ahanes utilizes various and unique poetic styles to create a world encompassed by fear and suspense, while kindling sparks of hope and happiness. With the Day of reckoning in sight, the inner struggle between good and evil culminates, determining if the spirit within has surrendered to malice, or if the power of divine love will prevail and save.
