Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Link: August 1958 What a man truly believes, deep down in his heart, that makes the man! When Moses met God at the burning bush and believed, the fearful, runaway shepherd became God s mighty leader of the hour to lead his people from the slavery of Egypt. When Saul met the risen Christ on the Damascus road and believed, he became the world s foremost missionary and established the Christian church firmly in the Roman Empire. Even false beliefs, firmly held, shape people s lives. Take the communists, for instance - their belief in dialectic materialism leads them into forceful and wicked action. So it is important that men believe the truth! How know the truth? Turn to the Bible. Follow Christ who said, I am the truth. Use the mind God gave you to reason with. Move out on faith.
