By good management, and showing a bold front, I saw the whole family safe to their residence in Manchester Street. To gratify the anxiety of the public, on the interesting subject of the detenues, I sat down one night about ten o'clock and wrote a little narrative on the subject, which by eleven next morning was in the hands of a publisher: the newspapers copied it, and had actions commenced against them by him. During about twenty-five years after my confinement in the trunk, I suffered from a recurrence of cramp of a most curious character; after getting damp, unusual exertion in walking, c, the sensation was most painful, and appeared mostly as if the pain were in the marrow of the bone; but I have during many years found an instant remedy, and now seldom feel any symptoms...
